DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-2 and 8-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kolb et al. US Pat. 5,672,856.

Kolb et al. teaches a safety sensor for a power operated overhead door comprising:

an elongated non-conductive housing (please see the abstract and figs. 12-14) having an elongated pathway;

the housing having a recessed portion (for the contacts);

electrical contacts 112 and 111 disposed in the recesses;

and a ball bearing 136 for tilted electrical engagement and disengagement.

Regarding claim 2, the "tapering" recites a range between 0 to 5 degrees. Kolb et al meet the claimed ranges.

Regarding "mounting" the tilt device to a door, use is inherent.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 3-4 and 10-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kolb et al.

Regarding claims 3-4 and 10-11, Kolb et al. teaches the claimed invention except for the taper having specific angle of 1.0 or 1.5 degrees. However, Kolb et al. discloses the importance of having a tapering angle in order to bring the metal ball bearing to its central position, as shown in fig. 12.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 5 and 12 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. Claims 6-7 depend claim 5.
